Entre Nous ————— by Rush

INTRODUCTION

THE 1981 PRESIDENT WAS PUT TOGETHER WITH GREAT DETERMINATION, WORK AND TALENT, AND IN THAT ORDER, TOO. THE DEVOTION OF THIS YEARS STAFF MADE POSSIBLE THE CONTINUATION OF THIS SPIRITED TRADITION. I WOULD LIKE TO POINT OUT TO THOSE WHO WILL MAKE UP NEXT YEARS STAFF THAT YOU MUST CONSISTANTLY WORK HARD AND EVEN IN THE MOST DISCOURAGING MOMENTS YOU MUST BE DETERMINED. DON'T EVER ASSUME IT WILL BE EASY OR GO SMOOTHLY. BE STRONG AND ALWAYS REMEMBER YOUR GOALS.

EXPLANATION OF THEME

WE ALL EXIST AS SEPERATE PEOPLE, FITTING OR NOT FITTING WITH OTHERS. TOGETHER, WE FORM SPECIFIC GROUPS OR BODIES OF PEOPLE. McKINLEY IS ONE PARTICULAR EXAMPLE OF A BODY OF PEOPLE WHICH WE ALL FIT INTO. PERHAPS IT WILL BE ONE OF THE MORE SIGNIFICANT GROUPS WE WILL BELONG TO IN LIFE. EACH OF US CONTRIBUTING SOMETHING DIFFERENT TO THE WHOLE. — incomplete sentence

THE YEARS ARE BEST REMEMBERED BY THE COMBINATIONS OF PEOPLE THAT MAKE UP THE SCHOOL. EVERY YEAR WILL SEE A NEW BEGINNING AS WE ALL ENTER INTO OUR FUTURES. IT IS WITH THE SENIOR CLASS THAT WE ARE NOW REMINDED THAT WE EACH CAME TO McKINLEY SEPARATE FROM EACH OTHER; AS TIME WILL AGAIN SEPARATE US.

We are planets to each other
Drifting in our orbits.
Each of us a world apart
Alone and yet together
Like two passing ships

We are secrets to each other
Each one's life a novel
No-one else has read
We are linked to one another
By such slender threads

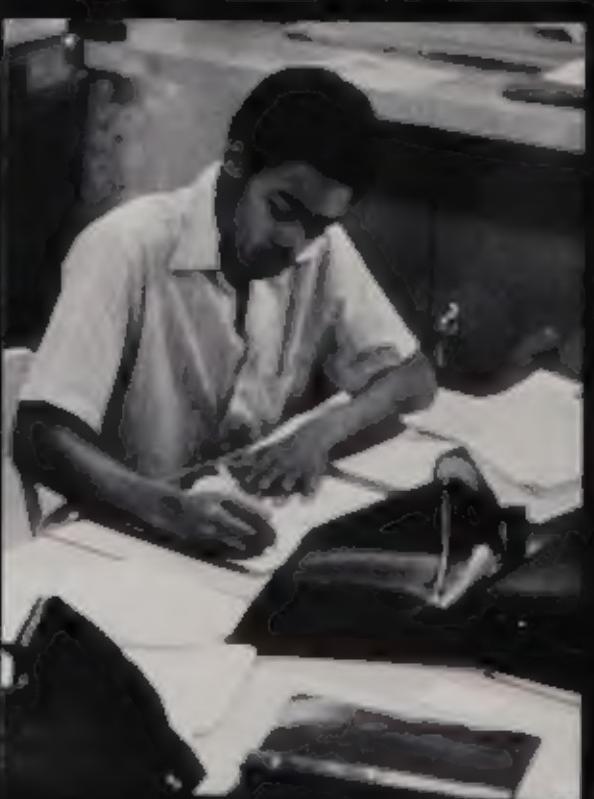

*Just between us
I think it's time for us to recognize
The differences we sometimes feared to show
I think it's time for us to realize
The spaces in between*

*Leave room
For you and I to grow*

We are strangers to each other
Full of sliding panels
An illusion show
Acting well rehearsed routines
Or playing from the heart?
It's hard for one to know

*We are islands to each other
Building hopeful bridges
On the troubled sea
Some are burned or swept away
Some we would not choose
But we're not always free*

1981 PRESIDENT IS DEDICATED TO JULIE COFTA

Julie Cofta — Died: June 6, 1980

Julie Cofta was special to us. She graced our school and our lives with her beauty and her inspiration. In her ever-present smile we witnessed a kind of inner peace and wisdom which all of us seek. In her softly spoken words we heard a kind of sincerity and warmth which is so rare in our world. In her expressive eyes we saw our own souls reflected back at us as she listened to us and comforted us in matters big or small. She was a true friend to us all and we are changed somehow for having known her. Julie only touched us for a moment, yet her memory stays with us forever.

Julie's Father

Stephen Cofta — A.C.R

Julie graduated from Geneva Christian College in June 1979. She started her teaching career as a substitute teacher in September 1979, at McKinley. During her college years, she sang with a college Gospel Group called the Children of Light. When she graduated, she traveled the United States and Europe in the praises of the Lord with the Continental Singers. When she came to McKinley, her ministry continued and she touched many lives in the short time she spent with us. Julie went to be with the Lord on June 6, 1980 as she drove home from school. She will be remembered for her bright smile, pleasant and considerate manner and above all her shining love for Jesus Christ. Julie is deeply missed by all, but if she were with us today, her message to us would be; "Do not mourn for me, for, I have gone to be with the Lord, do all you can in this life to follow me."

AND A NEW DAY WILL DAWN FOR THOSE WHO STAND LONG AND THE FORESTS WILL ECHO WITH LAUGHTER.

Breathe, breathe in the air
Don't be afraid to care
Leave but don't leave me
Look around and choose your own ground
For long you live and high you fly
And smiles you'll give and tears you'll cry
And all you touch and all you see
Is all your life will ever be.

Last Will &

I, Maribel Afanador, leave John Goralski my accent with rolling "R's", my best wishes to Marcie and I would like to thank John T., Bill B., and Mr. Reinhardt

I, Bob Alair, leave Mr. Schulberg a years supply of Krackel bars, to Mr. Piccillo I leave some sanity (in hopes he knows how to use it) and thanks to Mr. Reinhardt

I, Brian Ambor, leave to all the future skiers a good time on the slopes, to Mr. Goatsey a six pack of Heineken and to everyone a good time

I, Derrick Anderson, leave the request to get some girls in this school and get better lunches

I, Tom Aydelotte leave advice to all newcomers of McKinley: the "Halls" are to walk, the "Lunches" are to throw, and the "Assemblies" are held to leave school — Take Advantage

I, Chuck Battaglia, leave Mr. Albert my calendar picture of Marilyn Monroe and a bottle of pepto-bismol to Laurie West for after those wild parties

I, George Battaglia leave all my partying material to Mr. Schulberg to Mr. Harmon, good luck to the freshmen, and the remains of my car to Mr. Leone

I, Marcie Battaglia, leave Mari Afanador my Gnome friends signed with shortness, to Mr. Reinhardt a "Super Senior Advisor Award", thanks friends for the best four years

I, Bill Barile leave my hall walking ability and luck of not getting caught to all the future photographers at McKinley High

I, Ann Marie Bethage, leave to all McKinley's future graduates the ability to accept the use criticism wisely, and to Mr. Reinhardt — it's nice to know someone cares! Thanks

I, Bruce Birnead, leave my Artistic Insight and Dedication to the art students of McKinley, and especially to CJD

I, Janet Black, leave Mr. Silkes an electronic door that automatically slams shut with the sound of the late bell, and to Starpus and Vanessa all the luck in the world

I, Jeff Bond, leave my

Just one voice
Singing in the darkness
All it takes is One Voice
Singing so they hear what's on your mind
And when you look around find
There's more than one voice
Singing in the darkness
Joining with your One Voice

Each and every note another octave
Hands are joined and fear unlocked
If only one voice
Would start it on its own
We need just one voice
Facing the unknown
And then that One Voice
Would never be alone
All it takes is that one voice
Shout it out and let it ring

The Teenage Mr. Buffalo Powerlifting contest was held Feb 21-22 at the police gym. Senior McKinley student Bruce Szyszkowski made a fine showing in the 181 lb. class. Bruce bench pressed 315 lbs., squatted with 405 and made a deadlift of 475. His 1170 lb. total earned Bruce a 2nd place trophy for his class. At 16 years of age, Bruce still has two years of competition left. We wish him the best of luck!

POLITICS

There exists only five Presidential elections (each century) that fall on an even decade year ending in a zero, and 1980 was one of them. One particular fact has been true to each of these elections for the past 140 years. Since 1840 every man whose won one of these elections has met his death while still in office.

1840 — William H. Harrison

1860 — Abraham Lincoln

1880 — James Garfield

1900 — William McKinley

1920 — Warren Harding

1940 — Franklin D. Roosevelt

1960 — John F. Kennedy

Seven Presidents have died in a consistent pattern for the last 140 years. 1980 saw the election of RONALD REAGAN. The question that arises now is: Will GEORGE BUSH become the 41st President of the United States without being elected to the position, as were

MUSIC

Tragedy struck the world of rock-n-roll in 1980. Buffalo was ready and waiting for the Led Zeppelin concert, until the sad news hit. JOHN BONHAM — drummer was found dead in his bed. Rock-n-rollers around the globe mourn the death of one of the greatest musicians that ever lived. And God bless the man for making so many so happy.

One of the highlights of the concert scene in 1980 was the long awaited BOB SEGER. Three shows at the Aud were sold out. All three shows swelled with energy. He never lost the power and energy of "Katmandu" or the sweet elusive quality in "Accompany Me". Most agree that the long await was well worth it. This could well have been Buffalo's last glimpse of SEGER — live!

JOHN LOVED AND PRAYED FOR
THE HUMAN RACE, PLEASE DO
THE SAME FOR HIM.

YOKO ONO

The Beatles lead by John Lennon, dominated the international music scene in the 60's. Beatlemania was the rage afflicting a whole generation. In 1970 the group disbanded to go their separate ways. John with wife Yoko Ono began recording controversial material exploiting their idealistic views. Many seeked Lennon as a hero of peace. After a 5 year's absense from music John returned in 1980 to record a smashing "Double Fantasy" album with the hit single "Starting Over". He was sought after for countless interviews, autographs, and talkshows. On December 8, 1980 John Lennon was senselessly shot to death outside the Dakota apartment building by a deranged man.

Someone turned on the radio. The muffled strains of "give peace a chance" played. The crowd sang along. McKinley students could be filtered through the Delaware Park crowd on that cold Sunday vigil. For ten minutes the world grieved for John Lennon and his family. Ironically it was Lennon's love of people that ended to be his Achilles heel. For on that fateful night of December 8, it was inevitable John would turn and acknowledge the voice that called out "Mr. Lennon . ." Lennon and the Beatles music will endure but the dream is over with it a part of us is also gone.

Renew Faith, Reagan Asks At Inaugural

By MAX MURPHY

WASHINGTON Calling Americans to "an era of national renewal," Ronald Reagan today became the 40th president of the United States. He urged Americans to "renew our faith and hope." He declared that "we have every right to dream heroic dreams."

The inaugural bells and cannon, music and pageantry became a celebration, too, for 52 American hostages reported freed at last from Iranian bondage.

President Reagan's address focused on the U.S. economy and foreign affairs but he also took time to note in the hour he dedicated to the audience that Carter had not forgotten Americans' aspirations.

Reagan's speech was brief. At 10:45 a.m. EST, he began his speech with a reference to the 52 Americans held captive in Iran.

Reagan stressed that while there is a "wider world" in which we are a unique people prepared to maintain a political life and marketplace activity which is the heart of our republic.

In an obvious reference to the long of American hostages abroad he declared: "We are not here to add to a catalogue of woes. We are here to add to the reservoir of freedom and a beacon of hope for those who do not now have freedom."

RE PROMISED The United States will be a faithful ally to friends and told potential adversaries that peace is America's highest aspiration.

Mr. Reagan said forbearance should never be misread as a failure of will. "When action is required to preserve our nation's security, we will act," he said. "We will maintain sufficient strength to prevail if need be, but we will do so with the next round of negotiations."

For Mr. Carter, the path to home, the president's return to Plains, Ga., after a longer term and a re-elected bid hampered by futile efforts to free the hostages.

Minutes before George Bush had taken the almost identical path of vice president-elect.

"WITH ALL the creative energy at our command, let us begin an era of national renewal," Mr. Reagan said in his inaugural address. "Let us renew our determination, our vision and our strength. To renew our faith and hope. We have every right to dream heroic dreams."

Your dreams will come true. They are going to be realized. The hopes and goals of Americans often help me to do better. Mr. Reagan's message is clear: Americans can do more.

Mr. Reagan and his wife Nancy Reagan flew yesterday to an airport in Washington, D.C., and were welcomed at St. John's Episcopal Church.

Reagan left the church and government is not the solution. It is the problem," Mr. Reagan said a line sounded day after inauguration day in the quest that links him to the White House by some.

Mr. Reagan will be measured in his words, but it is clear he has a plan. He is not the man to go home without a plan. He is not the man to go home without a plan.

Mr. Reagan's message is clear: that as number one on the balance sheet in his mind, if government promotes American enterprise, he will be a good president.

These will be our first seven days and for these principles there will be no compromise," he said.

And in an era of renewal a theme Mr. Reagan will continue to emphasize is the importance of freedom and a beacon of hope for those who do not now have freedom.

Reagan Orders Hiring Freeze

WASHINGTON President Reagan, in his first official act as president, on Wednesday imposed a federal hiring freeze that his aides contend has more teeth than one signed by former President Jimmy Carter.

He signed the paper less than an hour after he was sworn in as the 40th president. In addition to freezing the federal workforce, he issued a memorandum to heads of the federal work force.

The Reagan order requires all federal agencies to freeze hiring of new civilian employees.

Soviet Agent Jailed LOS ANGELES (UPI) —

Reagan Reportedly Cool To Carter's Hostage Deal

By SETH FREEDMAN

WASHINGTON — Ronald Reagan was acting out of more than generosity and compassion when he asked Jimmy Carter to welcome the U.S. hostages to freedom on behalf of the nation.

Mr. Reagan, as editor-in-chief of his newspaper, does not regard it as detrimental. Mr. Reagan's spokesman has struck up a friendly relationship with Mr. Carter, though the two pledged to support each other.

More than that, Mr. Reagan doesn't agree with the way Mr. Carter negotiated for the hostages' release, and he is returning to the issue from time to time because he wants to take charge of it personally.

When he immediately jumped on the rail to ride along to meet the 52 Americans who had been held captive in Iran, Mr. Reagan was not thinking the release of the hostages is over. Instead, he was trying to prove he deserved to be in charge of the process.

He is not the only one who has criticized Mr. Carter's handling of the most difficult aspect of what he would have done. And Mr. Reagan adds, anticipating that the Iranians would carry over to their side of the negotiations.

Reagan's spokesman says the Iranian's demand for $1 billion is "ridiculous."

THE CARTER administration, after firmly promising not to negotiate on Iran's complaints unless the hostages were released made the same offer.

One Reagan adviser said, "Reagan would not have permitted the Iranians to push us around the way they've done."

Mr. Reagan himself has seemed cool toward the final deal, but not so cool that when he announced the deal he did not say he was happy about it.

He is not the only one who has criticized Mr. Carter's handling of the most difficult aspect of what he would have done. And Mr. Reagan adds, anticipating that the

52 Depart Tehran in Algerian Jets

Iran today freed the 52 U.S. hostages after 444 days in captivity, exchanging them for its frozen assets, and the Americans took off for Algiers on the first leg of a journey home and a heroes' welcome.

Iran's Press news agency made the announcement about noon Eastern time, almost as Ronald Reagan was sworn in as president of the United States.

The two Algerian 727 jetliners flew across Turkey late this afternoon Eastern time on the first leg of a flight either to Algiers, where U.S. military aircraft are waiting to carry them to the Air Force base at Wiesbaden Germany or directly to Wiesbaden. A refueling stop was scheduled in Athens, Greece.

Former President Jimmy Carter plans to leave tonight to greet them. Former Secretary of State Edmund S. Muskie said he would accompany Mr. Carter aboard Air Force I.

The hostages went to the airport in Tehran shortly after nightfall after Algerian intermediaries confirmed the financial transaction was complete.

At the airport with the hostages were Iranian negotiators led by Behzad Nabavi, who headed the talks for Tehran, and the Swiss ambassador to Iran, Eric Lang, who represented American interests there.

Paris said Islamic Revolutionary Guards around the plane shouted "Allah-O-Akbar" (God is Great), "Down with America," and "Down with Reagan" as the hostages boarded the planes.

THE LONG-AWAITED liberation came after the United States and Iran worked out a last-minute deal that developed Monday and delayed the expected release for more than 24 hours.

White House spokesman Jody Powell said the snag dealt with how much interest was due on Iranian accounts in U.S. banks.

A final delay developed when the hostages had to wait for airport officials to turn on the runway lights darkened because of the war with Iraq.

The agreement finally reached today for freedom of the hostages scales down by more than $14 billion the amount Iran asked for in its original demand last month.

Iran had asked for $24 billion. The largest demand dropped in negotiations was one for $10 billion to cover the wealth that the Iranians claimed Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi took from their country when he fled.

The Iranians also had maintained that their assets from President Carter in his order of Nov. 11, 1979 amounted to some $1.4 billion.

U.S. officials say the amount agreed upon is the estimate of the assets is some $9.5 billion.

TREASURY OFFICIALS in Washington said just under $8 billion was transferred to an escrow account in

News, Channel 7 Launch Drive to Aid Mrs. Dwyer

The Buffalo Evening News and WKBW-TV are co-sponsoring a petition campaign to ask President Reagan to work to set free the freedom of Cynthia Dwyer, a British citizen who has been imprisoned in Iran since her arrest May 7 on allegations of spying and hostilities.

Steve Ridge, news director at Channel

7, said he conceived the petition idea because the petition is being printed in tomorrow's news. The petition can be used to obtain signatures and become part of the petitions going to Iran.
